

Leave a Legacy & Help Others

Please consider leaving the Via Center as a beneficiary in your will.

Providing support will allow the Center to grow and flourish and help others benefit from its programs and services.

Charitable gifts through your will reduce the size of your estate. This can result in estate tax savings, both at the federal and state levels, if your net worth is above the current estate tax exemption limit.

Gifts of real estate, jewelry, retirement plan investments, life insurance or insurance annuity assets are all options.

And, the beneficiary designations in a will, as well as the specific gift amounts and types, can be changed by donors at any time during their lives.
